A FOREIGNER, WHO FOR YEARS enjoyed Virginia's toleration without a suspicion that he was buying and paying for it, is now beset by thieves and shysters and blackmailers to such a degree that he is anxious to retire. To that end he will close out a thousand acres, within fitteen minutes of Richmond, for half the cost of improvements alone. No agents, Address JOHN CUSSONS, Glen Allen, Va.

There are well-known people in this section who look for their easy money by provoking accusations and then suing for defamation of character. One of their familiar, phrases, accompanied by a knowing wink, is, "Get him accuse me of it!" The petifoggers who tout for this trade generally figure on a settlement out of court. Strangers are often caught; the practice should be exposed.
